OTHER INFORMATION

- Membership is available only to Incorporated Associations as per BCWA Constitution. "Friend of BCWA" membership is available to associations who do not meet this criterion or whose Constitution may prohibit them from joining other associations or who do not wish to be a member.
- Under section 27 of the Associations Incorporation Act; if your application is accepted: Your name and address, as provided above will be recorded in a register of members and be made available to other members upon request and you will be entitled to inspect and make a copy of the register of members.
- In accordance with rule 5(5) if your application for membership is rejected by the BCWA Committee: You may give notice of your intention to appeal within 14 days of being advised of the rejection. The Association, in a General Meeting, no later than the next Annual General Meeting, must confirm or set aside the decision of the BCWA Committee rejecting your application, after giving you a reasonable opportunity to be heard or to make written representations to the General Meeting.
